

PIPT Ethics Form

Ethical Issue	How you will deal with it
Characteristics of your participants	Number and type (children, parents, colleagues, others)
	Who is include in the research and why?
	How will you support anyone likely to experience difficulties in participating fully in the study (e.g. due to age, knowledge of English language, physical ability, additional support needs etc)?
Informed consent	How will you inform potential participants about this research project?
	How will you obtain consent from any children or adults involved in the research?
Benefits and harms	What, if any, are the intended benefits for those participating in the project (e.g. having their opinions heard, new or improved experiences)?
	Could your research have a negative impact on your participants in any way? If YES, please give details and explain how you will minimise the risks and deal with any problems.
Confidentiality	How will you protect the identity of your participants (i.e. ensure anonymity) especially if learning is likely to be shared beyond your workplace?
	Who will have access to the data you collect?
	How will you store, back up and dispose of data ? (e.g., on a password-protected device)